THE MINISTER OF LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI RAM JETHMALANI): (a) and (b) The 11th Law Commission in its 120th Report, which was placed before the Parliament in the year 1988, had, inter alia, recommended that the present strength of 10.5 Judges per million population be increased to 50 Judges per million population.

With regard to the strength of Judges in the High Courts, among other factors, institution and pendency of cases are very relevant.

The strength of Subordinate judiciary is determined by the State Governments in consultation with their respective High Courts. The Law Commission's Report has been accordingly forwarded to all the State Governments.

The matter relating to increase in Judge strength has now become sub judice in view of W.P. No. 399/98 alongwith I.A. No. 1 filed in the Supreme Court of India.

But the Government is prima facie of the view that the number of Judges does require to be increased almost at all levels.
